

Ashray Akruti Observes International Ear Care Day

3rd March is observed as International Ear Care Day across the world. Ashray Akruti joined in the global observation of this day, which aims to raise awareness and promote community-based activities for ear and hearing health.

On the occasion of “International Ear Care Day”, Ashray Akruti in association with Gandhi Hospital organized an “Ear health camp” at its premises where 250 under privileged children from four schools-Government Primary School and High School (Yellareddyguda), Buds and Flowers School and Bharati Vidhyalaya High School were checked for their ears and also advised on how to take care of Ears. Ashray Akruti is committed to improving the quality of life of children living with, or at risk of, hearing loss and ear diseases. This was a humble effort by the organization to promote ear and hearing health among school going children from underprivileged backgrounds.

The event was graced by Dr. JayaRam (Registrar and Senior Administrative Officer, Indian Institute of Public Health), and Dr. Sai Kumar, Retd Government ENT Doctor.

Volunteering at Ashray Akruti

HCL Employees visited and volunteered at the Residential home at Begumpet .The volunteers engaged with the students in teaching craft work, dance. They also spent time in playing Caroms and Table tennis with the students. The volunteers expressed interest to learn sign language and our students were only too delighted teach them to sign English Alphabets.

Ashray Akruti Students engage with Mainstream Schools

Matusri DAV Public School, Students and Staff donated 10 Hearing Aids for the hearing impaired students of Ashray Akruti. Mr. Kannaih Naidu, President Matusri Nagar Society and Ms.Anandavalli Principal fixed the hearing aids for the children. Thank you staff and students for this initiative to help bring sound into the silent world of their hearing impaired counterparts.

Oakridge School Students invited students of Ashray Akruti to play soccer with them at their grounds. This was a great platform for the students to come together in an effort to promote camaraderie and friendship among students with disability and without disability. The one half hours of play together really helped towards this goal.

Ashray Akruti Students of Multimedia & Computer Animation Center Visit Dreams Entertainment Private Limited

Ashray Akruti Students of the multimedia and animation center visited Dreams Animation Private Limited for an exposure visit. The purpose was to understand the work environment, the type of projects undertaken by Dreams and the students could correlate their learning at Ashray Akruti. The lab coordinator took the students around the office and showed great interest in making them understand the kind of work they do. The students also interacted with the other hearing impaired students of previous year who are now working at Dreams.
