

Despite odds they came out with flying colors

It calls for a standing ovation when you hear all of our SSC students who had appeared for Board Examination did exceedingly well in their exams. The eight children from Ashray Akruti School, Master SaiLaxman, Ms. Anusha, Master Prudhvi, Ms. Sneha, Ms. Sonal, Master Teja Reddy, Master Rajesh and Ms. Rani secured very good scores. Among the eight students Ms. Anusha topped with 8.3 GPA. It injects inspiration and motivation to them and they also feel a sense of equality compared to their counterparts.

"I don't know how to express my happiness. The teachers at Ashray Akruti School encouraged me to give all my exams very well. I know it is only because of their help and support I came out on top," said Ms. R. Anusha with a broad smile on her face.

Let them hear forever; Cochlear Implant surgery for two Ashray Akruti children

The sooner Master Furqan and Sara, two of our hearing impaired children with Sensorineural Hearing Loss can hear their friends, listen music and feel the eternal nature!!

With the generous support of Max India Foundation and Hans Foundation, two of them have undergone Cochlear Implant Surgery at Max Super Speciality Hospital, New Delhi. The Cochlear Implant Surgeon, Dr. Sanjay Sachdeva assured that the children can hear like any other kids from now on.

Furqan who was diagnosed with Sensorineural Hearing Loss at an early age is a pre-nursery student in Ashray Akruti. His family consists of his father who is working as an electrician and mother a homemaker, hails from Hyderabad. The kid born with hearing impairment was selected for cochlear implant after a series of tests and examination by the Max India Foundation team. Later, he will be given quality rehabilitation therapy at Ashray Akruti which would enable him to speak and respond at par with his fellow mates.

It was a moment of shock for Sara's parents, when they realized that their daughter is deaf. Her father is a sales man and mother is a homemaker. The financially not sound family of Sara enrolled her in Ashray Akruti in 2014. The young cheerful girl is in her pre-primary class. After the Cochlear Implant Sara also will be given rehabilitation therapy at Ashray Akruti on the following days.

The parents of both Furqan and Sara expressed their heart-felt gratitude to Ashray Akruti for the fathomless support we have rendered to make their life more meaningful.
