The heart of our challenge is to continue our critical work in an era where COVID-19 has complicated nearly every decision. Lockdowns, supply shortages, and at times, a fear of availing health facilities, as the COVID-19 has challenged the continued provision of basic needs & health care. BREAK THE WALLS OF SILENCE

Even though some people have learned to adapt with day-to-day living, there are still millions of people, who are having a hard time coping up with the aftermath of COVID-19. As the impact of COVID-19 grows, so does the demand for social services. We are especially mindful of those experiencing hardship during this time and are responding where we can to the evolving needs of the communities.

We simply cannot leave this vulnerable communities to face this hardship on their own, and we know that especially in times of collective concern, we must come together to protect those who are unable to protect themselves.

Single-handedly we can do so little; together, we can do so much. Individually, we are just a single drop. TOGETHER, WE ARE AN OCEAN.
